

Dear Participant:

This notice is to inform you about policies prohibiting sexual and other forms of harassment or sexual assault, and to provide directions on how to report any violations of these policies. For purposes of this requirement, “other forms of harassment” is defined as “non-gender or non-sex-based harassment of individuals protected under federal civil rights laws, as set forth in organizational policies or codes of conduct, statutes, regulations, or executive orders.”

Oregon State University is committed to creating an equitable and inclusive campus free of all violence, harassment, and discrimination. The University embraces and respects differences in sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation among all individuals.

The University has policies prohibiting harassment and discrimination on the basis of protected categories, including a policy prohibiting Sexual Misconduct and Discrimination. Conference participants may access University policies prohibiting sexual misconduct and discrimination on the University’s Equal Opportunity and Access (EOA) website: <https://eoa.oregonstate.edu/>

OSU employees have an obligation to report incidents of sexual misconduct or discrimination. All conference participants are encouraged to report concerns related to harassment or discrimination.

Reporting Options

Reporting options at OSU can be found at <https://eoa.oregonstate.edu/complaint-information-and-procedures>.

Conference participants affiliated with other academic institutions also have the option of reporting to their own Title IX Officer or related office.

Participants may also report concerns and incidents directly to the NSF Office of Diversity and Inclusion by calling (703) 292-8020 or emailing programcomplaints@nsf.gov.

In the event of an emergency, dial 911.
